

MoC NBPDS data elements

Metadata item	Definition
Establishment identifier, NNNNNN	The identifier for the establishment in which episode or event occurred. Each separately administered health care establishment to have a unique identifier at the national level.
Maternity model of care identifier	A sequence of characters which uniquely identifies a maternity model of care, as represented by a number.
Target group indicator	An indicator of whether a particular maternity model of care is predominantly targeted at a specific section of women who share a common characteristic or set of characteristics, as represented by a code.
Target group	The characteristics of women or their pregnancy that define a target group for a specific maternity model of care, as represented by a code.
Profession of designated maternity carer	The profession of the maternity health care provider who is acting as the designated maternity carer in a model of care, as represented by a code
Profession of collaborative maternity carer	The profession of other recognised and named collaborative maternity care professionals in a maternity model of care, as represented by a code.
Midwifery caseload indicator	An indicator of whether a model of maternity care is a midwifery caseload model of care, as represented by a code.
Midwifery caseload size	The total estimated capped number of women (caseload) who will be cared for per year by each full-time equivalent primary midwife working in a midwifery caseload model of maternity care, as represented by a number.
Extent of continuity of carer	The extent to which continuity of carer is provided across the continuum of maternity care within a model of maternity care, as represented by a code.
Group session status, individual/group session	A descriptor of whether the model of maternity care offers antenatal and/or postnatal care in individual or group sessions, as represented by a code.
Planned medical visit indicator	An indicator of whether there are a minimum number of planned visits with a medical practitioner scheduled for all women in a model of maternity care, as represented by a code.
Routine relocation for intrapartum care and birth indicator	An indicator of whether a maternity model of care requires women to be routinely relocated from their community to another location prior to labour for intrapartum care and birth, as represented by a code.
Expected setting for an antenatal care visit	The expected setting for an antenatal care visit that is offered within a model of maternity care, as represented by a code.
Expected setting of birth	The expected setting for a birth offered by a model of maternity care, as represented by a code.
Postnatal visits in a residential setting	An indicator of whether a model of maternity care provides postnatal visits in a residential setting, as represented by a code.
Expected length of time for postnatal visits in a residential setting	The expected length of time a model of maternity care provides access to postnatal visits in a residential setting, as represented by a code.
Additional remote or rural services offered indicator	An indicator of whether or not additional remote or rural services are offered in a maternity model of care. As represented by a code.
Type of additional antenatal/postnatal remote or rural service	The type of additional rural and remote antenatal/postnatal service provided in a maternity model of care, as represented by a code.
Major model category	The overarching major category or group that a maternity model of care can be described by based on its characteristics, as represented by a code.

Source: Maternity MoC NBPDS, METeOR.