

Australian Government
Australian Institute of Health and Welfare

AIHW

Appendix I

Visual summary of the monitoring framework

Caution: Some people may find parts of this content confronting or distressing, including content relating to pregnancy loss and termination of pregnancy. Please carefully consider your needs when reading the following information.

| Who is experiencing sexual and reproductive health and care, and who is missing out? | | |
|--|--|--|
| Domains | Sub-domains | Outcomes |
| Individual health literacy | • Knowledge • Appropriate delivery | Physical Health, mental health & social wellbeing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Burden of disease • Productivity and effect on daily activities • Mental health • Quality of Life • Preferences realised • Manageability of SRH costs • Unmet need  |
| SRH events and conditions | • Prevalence • Incidence • Recurrence | |
| Agency | • Autonomy | |
| Service user experiences | • Cost to service user • Wait times • Distance | |
| Journey through care | • Care pathways • Referrals | |
| How equitable is the design and delivery of sexual and reproductive health services, and are they good quality ? | | |
| Availability | • Model of care (type, site, mode) • Quantity • Service distribution | Timely, accessible, good quality and equitable SRH service provision; that is accredited, and provided by competent and resourced workforce, where SRH services are provided <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inappropriate emergency department presentations • Potentially preventable hospitalisations (PPH) • Continuity of care • Services provided within full scope of practice • Complications & adverse events • Trust in healthcare • Cultural safety, free of racism • Inclusive service provision  |
| Comprehensiveness | • Transitions of care • Multi-disciplinary care • Shared decision making | |
| High quality and responsive to community | • Consistent with clinical guidelines and/or care standards • Confidentiality and privacy • Peer-recommended • Feedback processes | |
| Inclusive | • Culturally safe • Diversity and inclusion certification • Acceptable by and respectful of communities • Trauma-informed • Physically accessible • Stigma-free | |
| Workforce capability | • Scope of practice • Availability and allocation • SRH and interpersonal competencies in tertiary curricula (pre-service) • Specialised SRH and interpersonal competencies (in-service) | |
| Workforce support | • Capability development • Environment • Supportive management | |
| Are policies, systems and other structures enabling effective and equitable sexual and reproductive health in Australia? | | |
| Health literacy | • Systems • Environment • Comprehensive sexuality education • General adult SRH education | SYSTEMS: High performing health system <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Timeliness • Utilisation of preventative care and disease management • Return on investment • Affordability • Cost effectiveness • Value for money • Alignment with other sectors (education, housing, justice, social welfare)  |
| Resourcing | • Financing and expenditure • Efficiencies • Public health surveillance and data | |
| Investment | • Non-commercial research • Investment in SRH services / budget allocation | |
| Societal and cultural norms | • Social values • Media discourse • Political discourse | |
| Commercial determinants | • Transnational agreements • Commercial Research and Development | |
| Governance | • Policies & guidelines • Legal environment | |

TO LEARN MORE
click here

See the full report

Sexual and Reproductive Health
Monitoring Framework and Data Strategy

Australian Government
Australian Institute of Health and Welfare

A I H W

